Thank you for choosing the Porodo Flexible Tripod Stand. This manual will guide you through the setup and usage of your tripod for optimal performance. Please read the manual carefully before use and store it properly for future reference.

Features

1. The tripod's flexible legs can adapt to uneven surfaces, allowing you to shoot, record, or take selfies freely, whether indoors or outdoors.
2. Equipped with a ball head featuring a 20-4/1 UNC thread, the tripod is compatible with most small cameras, SLR cameras, and smartphones.
3. The ball head offers 360° rotation, enabling you to adjust the angle easily. Lock the position by tightening the knob.
4. The tripod comes with a carrying bag, making it convenient to transport and store.

Using the Tripod

1. The tripod is versatile and ideal for various uses such as travel, indoor/outdoor activities, and social events, allowing you to easily capture photos and videos.
2. Multiple attachments can be easily installed, offering broad compatibility for different devices.

Adjust the Angle and Position

1. Loosen the locking knob by rotating it counterclockwise to release the ball head.
2. Adjust the angle and position of the camera.
3. Tighten the locking knob by rotating it clockwise to securely lock the ball head.

Warnings

1. Do not exceed the maximum carrying capacity of the tripod to prevent damage to both the tripod and the camera. The maximum carrying capacity of the tripod is about 2kg. Ensure that the weight of your camera or smartphone does not exceed this limit.
2. To prevent corrosion, avoid using the tripod in or near humid or wet environments.
