Introduction

Welcome to your new Rechargeable COB Keychain Light—a compact yet powerful illumination solution designed for everyday carry and emergency use. Engineered with a high-brightness Chip-On-Board (COB) LED panel and housed in a durable aluminum-alloy shell, this versatile light offers flood-style brightness, multiple beam modes, and a strong magnetic base for hands-free operation. Easily recharge the built-in lithium-ion battery via USB-C, clip it to your keys or gear, and be ready to light your way whenever and wherever you need reliable, pocket-sized illumination. Whether you're camping, working in tight spaces, or navigating after dark, this keychain light delivers bright, consistent performance in the palm of your hand.
